

Quick Draw Game Rules

1. Name:

The collective name of the draw games conducted pursuant to this rule is "Quick Draw". As used in this rule, the term "Quick Draw" shall include both Quick Draw – Evening and Quick Draw – Midday unless context requires otherwise.

2. Independent draw games:

(a) Quick Draw shall be conducted as two (2) separate and independent draw games designated Quick Draw – Evening and Quick Draw – Midday, respectively. Tickets in the Quick Draw – Evening game are not associated with the Quick Draw – Midday game and vice versa. The two (2) games shall have separate selection events and winning numbers. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the odds, play styles, and prizes shall be identical in both Quick Draw games.

(b) If the player elects to make a wager for multiple draws, the multi-draw option shall apply to the next consecutive selection event(s), regardless whether it is evening or Midday.

3. Definitions:

(a) The definitions in this section apply throughout this rule.

(b) "Wager" means the amount in which the player elects to play per board purchased.

(c) "Board" means ten (10) numbers ranging from one (1) to eighty (80) that appear on a lottery ticket in relation to a particular selection event for Quick Draw.

(d) "Winning Quick Draw numbers" means the twenty (20) numbers determined in a specific Quick Draw selection event and announced as such pursuant to section 6 of these game rules.

4. Ticket price:

A wager for one (1) play valid for one (1) selection event for Quick Draw must be made in increments of one dollar ($1), two dollars ($2), three dollars ($3) or five dollars ($5).

5. Procedure for playing:

(a) A single play, applicable to a particular selection event for Quick Draw, shall include the selection of:

(1) the amount wagered under section 4 of this rule;

(2) ten (10) numbers ranging from one (1) to eighty (80).

(b) A valid ticket for a Quick Draw selection event must originate from the Commission. A ticket may only be issued after the information and purchaser elections required by this rule are entered into a terminal.

(c) A ticket is the only valid proof of a play and the only valid receipt for claiming a prize resulting from a Quick Draw selection event. A play slip shall have no pecuniary prize value and shall not constitute evidence of purchase of a ticket or a play.

(d) A ticket for Quick Draw is effective for the next scheduled Quick Draw selection event.

(e) Subject to 65 IAC 7-1-6 the Commission may offer multi-draw tickets for Quick Draw selection events which are effective for up to twenty-eight (28) consecutive selection events. The selection of the multi-draw option on a play slip will apply to all boards played on that play slip.

(f) Sales of tickets for Quick Draw selection events shall be suspended prior to the time of the associated selection event at a time determined by the director.

(g) A ticket for Quick Draw shall be cancelable for up to sixty (60) minutes after the transaction or up to the Quick Draw selection event cutoff time, whichever is first. The draw ticket for Quick Draw can only be cancelled by the terminal from which it was sold.

(h) Entry coupons may be generated by terminals for certain purchases of tickets for Quick Draw.
