This document contains pertinent information specific to operating lottery at store level in the state of Indiana. Strict adherence to the guidelines provided are imperative to the operational success of the overall Lottery Program.

Must Be 18 or Older to Purchase or Redeem Lottery Tickets

Walmart is committed to complying with all federal, state, and local laws when selling lottery products. To ensure compliance with the law, you will be required to:

1. Always assess the customer's age before completing a lottery sale or redemption.
2. If the customer appears under 18, then ask for their Government issued ID and check the ID visually.
3. If age 18 or older, then you may sell or redeem the age restricted lottery item.
4. If under age 18, you must deny the sale or redemption.
5. Answer the register age prompt of "is customer age 18 or older".

Note: As an associate, you cannot purchase lottery products at your home store, nor can any relative living in your household.

The Lottery Ticket Vending Machine should be monitored for customers who need assistance using the machine and to ensure that no one under 18 accesses the machine.
