The Hoosier Lottery will withhold Federal and State taxes at the minimum amount required by the IRS regulations and Indiana State Law. It is important to understand that the taxes withheld may not cover all of your Federal or State tax obligations. The final tax owed will depend on your personal tax situation. As the Hoosier Lottery or its employees cannot provide you with financial advice, we suggest you contact a professional tax advisor.

The Hoosier Lottery may require that the claimant participate in press conferences and other public relation activities.

Under penalty of perjury, I hereby declare that to the best of my knowledge and belief, the name, address and social security number/EIN provided correctly identify the recipient(s) of the payment of the validated winning ticket and that the purchaser of the ticket is not prohibited by law from purchasing a lottery ticket.

The Hoosier Lottery will determine if the prize winner has an outstanding debt to the state, owes delinquent taxes, or is past due on child support pursuant to IC 4-30-11-11. If a debt is discovered these funds will be withheld from your prize.

I understand that any person who, with intent to defraud, falsely presents for payment a forged, counterfeit or altered ticket is in violation of state law and may be prosecuted. I further acknowledge that I have read and understand all information listed above.
